

Name: _____ Grade:4 Subject: English Literature (ORC)

Teacher: Sabiha Saleh

Date: _____

Chapter: 1 (A Legend of Rubezahl)1. Word Meaning:

- a) Glazier – a person who cuts and fits glass into doors and windows
- b) Mound – hill
- c) Wail – moan, weep
- d) Compassionate – feeling or showing sympathy
- e) Haggling – bargain persistently
- f) Groan – inarticulate sound made in pain

2. Make Sentence:

- a) Mound, b) Wail, c) Compassionate, d) Groan, e) spirit

(Follow C.W or H.W copy)

3. True / False:

- a) The glazier was a naughty man- False
- b) The glazier discover the mound – True
- c) The glazier’s glass broke into hundred pieces – False
- d) Rubezahl is the mischievous spirit – True
- e) The glazier’s whole stock of glass cost at least eight dollars – True
- f) The miller was a good and hard working man – False
- g) The miller scratched his forehead in puzzlement – False

4. Fill in the Blank:

- a) The mountain path was_____, dusty and covered in small, _____stones.
- b) The _____glazier agreed to do as Rubezahl said.
- c) The glazier _____on the back of the donkey.
- d) The miller offered _____and the glazier took the money.
- e) The boy flew to his _____and related to him this _____tale.
- f) The miller had been punished by_____.

Ans: a. narrow, sharp b. astonished, c. climbed d. nine dollars e. master, wondrous

f. Rubezahl

5. I / S:

- a) "Ah! That's batter." – the glazier said that
- b) "Oh no! Oh no! My family will go hungry." - The glazier said with sigh
- c) "Hello my good man!" – A traveler said that
- d) "I don't know how I am going to recover this loss!" The glazier said that
- e) "Hey, get this donkey some hay!" – The miller said that
- f) "There you go old chap." – The stable boy said that
- g) "I don't eat hay." – the donkey said that

6. Question answers:

- a) Why was the glazier feeling tired?

Ans: The glazier was feeling tired because it was a sunny day and he was carrying a heavy load of glass.

- b) What did Rubezahl disguise himself as first?

Ans: Rubezahl disguised himself as a mound covered with soft grass.

- c) What did Rubezahl disguise himself as second?

Ans: Rubezahl disguised himself as a traveler.

- d) What was Rubezahl's third disguise?

Ans: Rubezahl's third disguise was that of a donkey.

- e) Find two examples from the story that show us that the miller was an unpleasant man.

Ans: The miller had cheated many poor people over the years. He also worked his animals and servants too hard.

- f) How do you think the stable boy felt when the donkey spoke to him?

Ans: the stable boy was scared and amazed at the same time. That's why he flew to his master to tell him this wondrous tale.

